

The Sault Ste. Marie Museum in conjunction with Breton House and SAH's Sexual Assault Care Centre present the launch of our community art studio:

The ART Speaks ArtHive

A free-access community art studio offering self-directed art-making and skills sharing for adults and youth (16+) impacted by trauma.

No prior art-making experience required;
materials supplied and it's FREE!

Sessions start Wed. Jan. 30, 2019
from 5:30-8:30pm

Stay for a bit, stay for a while – be sure to come back many times!

Upcoming ArtHives for Adults & Youth (16+yrs)
every second Wednesday from 5:30-8:30pm:

February 13 and February 27

March 13 and March 27

April 10 and April 24

May 8 and May 22

June 5 and June 19

Upcoming Family ArtHive Dates:

Sunday Feb. 24 -- 11:30-2:30

Sunday May 26 -- 11:30-2:30

Access the ArtHive via the back door of the Museum* off East St.; ring the buzzer, once inside take the stairs or the elevator to the Education Studio on the 2nd floor

*Sault Ste. Marie Museum, 690 Queen St. East, parking in the back off East St.

Need more info? Email: theartspeaksproject@gmail.com